Conclusion

June has been a significant month at Sainik School Ghorakhal, marked by various enriching activities and milestones. The highlight was the Investiture Ceremony, where newly appointed cadet leaders took on their roles with pride and a sense of responsibility, ready to uphold the school's values. Alongside this, other events and activities continued to nurture the skills, discipline, and character of our cadets.

As we move forward, let us remain dedicated to excellence, leadership, and teamwork. Together, we strive to uphold the traditions and honour of our institution.

Jai Hind!
